

MAY 8 1966

Photos by Harry Naltchayan, Staff Photographer

SWINGING PARTY—White House Press Secretary Bill D. Moyers, dances up a storm at the "Opera Ball" at the Smithsonian's Museum of History and Technology. Mrs. Rudolph Carter, wife of a State Department official and a member of the ball's executive committee, was turned away by her chairman because she wore a peekaboo dress. She returned, above, after putting on a long slip under dress.